UNIVERSITY OF Evansville

Jennifer Robb, soprano, is a native of New Albany, Indiana. She is completing her coursework in Music Therapy and will continue her studies through an internship. Jenny is a member of Sigma Alpha Iota and the University of Evansville Music Therapy Association where she currently holds the office of treasurer. Prior to being treasurer Jenny served as president of the U of E Music Therapy Association in 1986-1987. She has been a guest soloist at many area churches and was a soloist as a member of the Indiana Singing Hoosiers. During her career at Evansville, Jenny has been a featured soloist with the U of E Concert Choir and the U of E Honors Chorus Festival. Tonight marks her second solo performance with the U of E orchestra; she had performed in 1986 as a previous winner of the Concerto Competition. Jenny has studied voice with Eugene Bayless, Joan Nevill, and is currently a student of Roberta Veazey.
